

I think all states should adopt what Indiana has in eliminating soliciting phone calls to residences. Prior to adding my name to the "do not call list" I received up to 10 calls a day from people who were rude and sometimes went so far as to call me back several times just to hang up on me because I wouldn't listen to them to the point of harrassment. Working out of my home I was constantly interrupted by the same companies over and over. Politeness or rudeness - NOTHING seemed to stop these calls until I signed up to be on the no call list. I am now at peace. Many solicitors are nothing but scam artists who prey on the elderly who are lonely and these people can be protected by this list. The Indiana law helps prevent such abuse. PLEASE do not take this peace away from us - allow us our privacy - it is our right.
